

NSA launches www.nsa-securities.com

21 December 2009

The Nordic Securities Association – NSA – is pleased to announce that the website of the association has been launched.

On www.nsa-securities.com you can read about the association, find relevant position papers and consultation responses and read about the issues NSA is currently dealing with. Relevant contact information is also submitted on the website.

Journalnr. 152/24
Dok. nr. 243343-v1

NSA is the association of the Danish, Finnish, Norwegian and Swedish securities dealers associations and was formed in 2008. The association is currently chaired by Steen Blaafock, Senior Executive Vice President at Danske Bank.

The overall objective of the association is to promote a sound and efficient securities market primarily in the Nordic region but also on the European and International level.

For questions regarding the association or the website please contact the NSA secretariat by email: sin@dbmf.dk or by phone +45 3370 1064.